Grants Available from Northeast SARE

www.northeastsare.org

Grant Program	Description	Funding per project	Typical Project duration	Application due date	Contract start date	Eligible applicants	Required collaborators
Farmer	Farmer-led agricultural research and education.	Up to $30,000	1 to 2 years	Late fall	March 1	Farmers[1]	Technical advisor[2]
Graduate Student	Applied research with strong farmer impact.	Up to $15,000	1 to 2 years	Late spring	Aug 1	Enrolled graduate students	Faculty advisor
Partnership	Agricultural research and education in direct partnership with farmer(s).	Up to $30,000	1 to 2 years	Late spring	Aug 1	People who work with farmers	Farmer collaborator(s)
Research and Education[3]	Farmer education; may include an applied research component.	$30,000 to $250,000[4]	2 to 3 years	Preproposals in summer; full proposal in fall	March 1	Researchers, farmers, educators and others who work with farmers	Advisory committee
Research for Novel Approaches	Applied research demonstrating "proof of concept" with strong farmer impact.	$30,000 to $200,000[4]	2 to 3 years	Preproposals in summer; full proposal in fall	March 1	Researchers	Advisory committee
Professional Development[3]	"Train-the-trainer" education for people who work with farmers.	$30,000 to $150,000[4]	2 to 3 years	Preproposals in summer; full proposal in fall	March 1	People who work with farmers	Advisory committee
Farming Community	Social science focused agricultural research and education.	$30,000 to $250,000[4]	1 to 3 years	Winter	June 1	Farmers and people who work with farmers	Farmers

Notes: All grant programs require that proposals be submitted online. Projects may cover expenses such as labor, supplies, services and project-specific equipment but those costs used to start or expand farming operations (i.e., "regular" farm equipment and structures) are not allowed.

[1]See Northeast SARE's definition of a farm at: northeast.sare.org/farmdefinition.

[2]See guidance for Farmer Grant Technical Advisors at: northeast.sare.org/technicaladvisor.

[3]These grant programs use an Outcome Funding model; learn more at: northeast.sare.org/outcomefunding.

[4]These grant programs do not have a set funding cap; however, the amounts shown are typically awarded amounts.

rev. 6/3/25