

SARE PROFESSIONAL DEVELOPMENT PROGRAM

Expectations for Grantee Reporting and SARE Post-Project Evaluation

Logic Model Category	Performance Indicators	Who Collects/When Reported
		Grantee Collects/ Reports by End of Project	SARE Collects/ Post Project
Participants	Number and type of individuals who received training – Extension, NRCS, Agency, Farmer/Rancher, Non-Profit, Other (e.g. consultants, industry)	✓
	Number and types of individuals who participate in advisory groups (state programs only)	✓
Outputs: – Activities – Products	Number and type of educational activities conducted by the project (workshops, field days, tours, webinars, consultation, etc.)	✓
	Number and type of educational products (fact sheets, guides, video, bulletins, web content) and tools (computer programs, data bases, decision tools, curricula, etc.) produced by the project	✓
Learning Outcomes	Number of participants that report changes in KASA (knowledge, attitudes, skills, awareness) as a result of participating in project education	✓
	Number of participants who intend to use new knowledge and skills in existing or new programming	✓
Primary Action Outcomes (2-3 year projects)	Number of project participants who incorporate information from project into existing programs	✓	✓
	Number of project participants who incorporate information from project into new education programs	✓	✓
	Number of project participants who incorporate information learned into educational products and tools	✓	✓
	Number of project participants who share project materials and/or SARE and other sustainable ag resources with farmers and others	✓	✓
	Number of farmers reached through project participants' programs	✓ optional	✓
	New professional collaborations as a result of project	✓ optional	✓
	SARE grant leveraged another grant	✓ optional	✓
Secondary Action Outcomes	Number of farmers/ranchers who use information learned to adopt a practice, approach, technology (including what is adopted)		optional
	Number of acres, animals, or other production units affected by adoption (as an indicator of scale of adoption)		optional
Condition Outcomes	Increased capacity (resources, staff) of organizations for programs in sustainable agriculture		optional
	Economic, environmental, social benefits for farmers/ranchers from changes made on farms/ranches		optional