

Southern SARE Conference/Event Sponsorship and Budget Form

Each year, the Southern region Sustainable Agriculture Research and Education (SSARE) program provides sponsorship support for conferences, field days, workshops and other educational events organized by universities, community organizations, NGOs, mentor farmers and other ag professionals across the Southern region. The events can be regional events, as well as national events taking place in the Southern region whose main purpose is to further sustainable agriculture for the benefit of farmers, NGOs, community organizations, researchers and other ag professionals.

To be considered for sponsorship support, requests must:

- Be submitted at least 45 days in advance of the event;
- Pertain to an event within the Southern region of the U.S.;
- Serve domestic audiences (specifically farmers and/or those who serve farmers);
- Include a farmer education/outreach component, in the form of a variety of activities, such as field days, farm tours, hands-on workshops, or demonstrations;
- Relate to sustainable agriculture.

To be considered for conference sponsorship support, please fill out this sponsorship form and e-mail to southern-sponsorships@sare.org. Any form not filled out properly or in its entirety will be returned. Refer to the following webpage for additional important conference sponsorship information: <https://southern.sare.org/about/conference-sponsorships/>

DISCLAIMER: Sponsorships are contingent on annual funding availability at the time of the request. Funds are discretionary and will be awarded at the discretion of Southern SARE. Sponsorship fund availability varies year to year and is not always available. A submission of sponsorship request does not automatically indicate support acceptance. Southern SARE reserves the right to deny sponsorship funding if sponsorship guidelines, allowable budget items (including itemization and justification of budget items), or sponsorship deadlines are not met.
